

Cookie Policy. Use of cookies on this site

A cookie is a small file, usually consisting of letters and numbers. This file is saved on your computer, tablet, phone or other device that you use to visit the site. Cookies are widely used by site owners to ensure the operation of sites or to increase the efficiency of their work, as well as to obtain analytical information.

The website INNOVA GOLD uses its own and third-party cookies and similar technologies to store information on your computer. It is done in order to guarantee maximum convenience for users by providing personalized information, storing up preferences in the field of marketing and products, as well as helping to get the right information.

By continuing to use our site, you give your consent to the use and placement of cookies. We agree with the cookie definitions given in European Directive 2002/58 / EC regarding the processing of personal data and the protection of privacy in the electronic communications sector (as amended by Directive 2009/136 / EC), as well as the information below on the various categories of cookies that we use on our website.

We and our service providers may use various types of cookies on our sites:

1. Strictly necessary cookies

Cookies of this category are necessary in order to enable you to navigate the Website and use its functions, such as access to protected sections of the Website.

2. Cookies to improve website performance

Cookies of this category collect information about the use of the Website by visitors, for example, which pages are viewed by visitors most often, and whether visitors to the Website receive error messages on web pages. These cookies do not collect information that directly identifies the visitor. All information collected by these cookies is combined; as a result it remains anonymous. Such information is used only to improve the operation of the Website. The cookies of Category 2 collect information about the use of the Website only in the interests of the operator of the Website. By using our online service you agree that we may place such cookies on your device.

3. Functional cookies

Cookies of this category allow the Website to remember your choice of answers (for example, your username, language or region in which you are located) and provide advanced options to suit your individual preferences or needs. For example, our Website may provide you with information about products offered in your city or region by storing the region in which you are currently located in a cookie. These cookies can be used to remember your changes regarding text size, fonts used, and other personalized web page settings.

They can also be used to provide the services you request, such as watching videos or commenting on blogs. The information collected by these cookies may be anonymous, and these cookies cannot track your activity on other sites. By using our online service to configure personal settings, you agree that we may place such cookies on your device that are used to remember your preferences.

4. Target or advertising cookies

Cookies of this category are used to display advertisements that are most relevant to your needs and interests, based on an analysis of your movements on the network. They are also used to limit the number of ad impressions, and to help us evaluate the effectiveness of an advertising campaign. They are usually placed on your device with third-party ad networks, but with our permission. These cookies store up your visit to our Website. This information is shared with other organizations, such as third-party advertisers, and will be tied to the website features provided by other organizations.

In other words, cookies of this category collect the most information about users. We and our service providers may use cookies for various purposes in order to:

- Make it easier for ourselves and third parties to receive information about your visits to the site;
- Process your orders;
- Analyze information about your visit to pages to improve our site;
- Provide advertisements, messages and content created by us and third parties on this site and the sites of other persons, taking into account your interests;
- Assist you in obtaining the necessary information;
- Define the number of visitors and how they use our site so that to increase the effectiveness of the site and to better understand the interests of their audience.
